Open Hands' projects:

Confidential advice, support and counselling services offered through the charity's Support Centre.

Emergency food parcel relief provided to referred individuals who are struggling financially.

A language skills course offering disadvantaged individuals the opportunity to learn English.

A project providing essential furniture and household items to those without.

A mentoring programme that builds individuals' self-esteem, confidence, and sense of identity.

Our brilliant coffee shop, from which all profits are invested back into the charity's work.

Our early years setting providing quality nursery education for children aged 2-4 years.

A mentoring programme to equip unemployed individuals to become work-ready.

A session providing free clothing, toiletries and household items to referred individuals.

A free hot meal served every Tuesday evening to anyone in need. Sponsored by Pukka Pies.

Become a 'Friend' of Open Hands

Open Hands relies on the ongoing generosity of donors in order to deliver its projects.

The 'Friends of Open Hands' scheme gives our valued supporters the opportunity to make a real and lasting difference in the lives of those we serve. By investing as little as £2 per month you'll be helping to transform real lives.

As a 'friend' you will also have the opportunity to receive our bi-monthly newsletter, containing news about what's happening in the life of Open Hands, 'most wanted' donation updates and stories from those that we have helped.

To become a 'friend' simply complete the enclosed form and return to:
